

Privacy Notice of Limerick & District Credit Union Limited - Lending & Overdraft

A credit union is a member-owned financial cooperative, democratically controlled by its members, and operated for the purpose of promoting thrift, providing credit at competitive rates, and providing other financial services to its members. Data collection, processing and use are conducted for the purpose of facilitating the abovementioned objectives. This notice is so that we provide you with information around the use of your data for lending or lending related purposes.

Our contact details are:

Address: Credit Union House, Redgate, Caherdavin, Limerick V94 D362

Website; www.mylimerickcu.ie

Email: info@lcu.ie

Phone: 061-455831

The Data Protection Officer for Limerick & District Credit Union Ltd can be contacted on 061-455831 or by email at dpo@lcu.ie or at the above address.

Limerick & District Credit Union Limited is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal data. This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal data about you during and after your relationship with us.

What personal data do we use?

We may collect, store, and use the following categories of personal data about you:

- Your name, address, eircode, gender, date of birth, member number, email, marital status, dependents, telephone number(s), mobile number, financial data, status and history, credit history, transaction data; contract data, details of the credit union products you hold with us, signatures, identification documents, salary, occupation, employment status, income verification, outgoings, accommodation status, bank statements, mortgage details, credit card statements, personal bank statements, salary cert, lending history, savings held elsewhere, family home declarations, previous addresses, spouse details, partners details, spouse/partner income details, nominations, Tax Identification/PPSN numbers, passport details, drivers license details, tax residency, interactions with credit union staff and officers on the premises, by phone, or email, current or past complaints, CCTV footage, telephone voice recordings, online identifiers (cookies), details on source of wealth and funds, further information on income, suitable contact time, birth country, account usage, current banking details BIC & IBAN ~~and~~ ~~number of dependants.~~

Additional Information required for home loans as follows: Valuation reports, Land Registry folio, Certificate of Title, Life Assurance cover documents – these documents contain the following information – Name, Address, date of birth, property value, member’s solicitor’s name, address and contact details and medical data. Source of Funds. Personal legal documents such as Separation/Divorce Agreements (if applicable), Confirmation of Gift letter (if applicable). Salary certificate completed by Employer. Where self-employed, tax clearance certification, audited accounts, Revenue Notice of Assessments, Business bank account statements.

The purposes for which we use your personal data:

The credit union will use your personal data to assist it in carrying out the following:

- Assessing your loan application and determining your creditworthiness for a loan.
- Verifying the information provided by you in the application.
- We are obliged to purchase loan protection and life savings protection from ECCU

- Conducting credit searches and making submissions to the Central Credit Register.
- Administering the loan, including where necessary, to take steps to recover the loan or enforce any security taken as part of the loan.
- We may use credit scoring techniques and other automated decision making systems to either partially or fully assess your application.
- Meeting legal and compliance obligations and requirements under the Rules of the Credit Union.
- To comply with Central Bank Regulations to determine whether you are a connected borrower or related party borrower.
- Providing updates on our loan products and services by way of directly marketing to you.
- To open and maintain an Member Personal Current Account Service ('MPCAS') overdraft account for you.

We may also collect, store and use the following "special categories" of more sensitive personal data:

- Information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness

We need all the categories of information in the list above to allow us to; identify you and contact you and in order that we perform our contract with you.

We also need your personal identification data to enable us to comply with legal obligations. Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal data.

How we use particularly sensitive personal data

"Special categories" of particularly sensitive personal data require higher levels of protection. We need to have further justification for collecting, storing and using this type of personal data. We may process special categories of personal data in the following circumstances:

1. In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent.
2. Where we need to carry out our legal obligations and in line with our data protection policy.
3. Where it is needed in the public interest, and in line with our data protection policy.

Less commonly, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

Standing order, direct debit, pay deduction and disbursement instructions

If you set up a direct debit with the credit union, the form will be retained in the credit union. To facilitate standing orders, direct debits and pay deductions, we must share the relevant information with third parties such as payment providers (CUSOP) and banks.

You may set up a pay deduction, standing order, direct debit to pay a credit union account which is not your own. You may also disburse part or all of your own direct debit, standing order or pay deduction to an account which is not your own. However, should you choose to do this, under the Data Protection Acts, Limerick and District Credit Union cannot provide you with the balance, transaction history or any other personal information on that account, under any circumstances. There may be cases where we can disclose some information to you, such as if you are guaranteeing a loan on that account.

How secure is my information with third-party service providers?

All our third-party service providers are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal data in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes unless they are deemed to be controllers in their own right¹. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions. Usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will also be bound by confidentiality obligations.

Information provided to us by you about others or others about you

¹ As a data controller, the organisations will be required to have provided you with a separate privacy notice setting out what it does with its data.

There may be instances where you provide us with someone else's personal data or they provide us with yours. Where this occurs, it is important that you seek their approval to disclose their personal data and likewise, they seek yours. We may add it to any personal information we already hold and we will use it in the ways described in our privacy notice.

If you fail to provide personal data

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have entered into with you or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations.

Change of purpose

You can be assured that we will only use your data for the purpose it was provided and in ways compatible with that stated purpose. If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Profiling

We sometimes use systems to make decisions based on personal data we have (or are allowed to collect from others) about you. This information is used for loans assessment and anti-money laundering purposes and compliance with our legal duties in that regard. We also carry out profiling in order to tailor our marketing to you by profiling members according to categories such as age, loan history, savings, life cycle and date of account opening.

Data Retention Periods

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose(s) for which it was obtained, taking into account any legal/contractual obligation to keep it. Where possible we record how long we will keep your data, where that is not possible, we will explain the criteria for the retention period. This information is documented in our Records Management Policy.

Once the retention period has expired, the respective data will be permanently deleted. Please see our retention periods below.

- Credit agreements are retained for contracts should be retained for 7 years after the loan is repaid, and twelve years where the document is under seal.
- Loan application information is maintained for a period of 7 years after the loan is repaid,
- Overdraft Applications are retained for 7 years from termination of overdraft agreement. Loan and Overdraft assessment documentation (e.g., bank statements, payslips etc) will be retained in conjunction with the loan / overdraft application and credit agreement for the same time periods to ensure the assessment was conducted appropriately.

Planned data transmission to third countries

There are no plans for a data transmission to third countries.

However, third parties who provide services to the credit union may be located in the UK or outside the EEA. To ensure that your personal data receives an adequate level of protection, to ensure that your personal data is treated by those third parties in a way that is consistent with and which respects the EU and UK laws on data protection, any transfer shall be made in accordance with the EU approved adequacy decisions for the EU GDPR and the Law Enforcement Directive (LED).

Our use and sharing of your information

We will collect and use relevant information about you, your transactions, your use of our products and services, and your relationships with us. We will typically collect and use this information for the following purposes:

Fulfilling contract This basis is appropriate where the processing is necessary for us to manage your accounts and credit union services to you

Administrative Purposes: We will use the information provided by you, either contained in this form or any other form or application, for the purpose of assessing this application, processing applications you make and to maintain and administer any accounts you have with the credit union.

Security: In order to secure repayment of the loan, it may be necessary to obtain security such as a charge on your property or other personal assets.

Third parties: We may appoint external third parties to undertake operational functions on our behalf. We will ensure that any information passed to third parties conducting operational functions on our behalf will be done with respect for the security of your data and will be protected in line with data protection law.

Guarantors: As part of your loan conditions, we may make the requirement for the appointment of a guarantor a condition of your loan agreement in order that credit union ensures the repayment of your loan. Should your account go into arrears, we may need to call upon the guarantor to repay the debt in which case we will give them details of the outstanding indebtedness. If your circumstances change it may be necessary to contact the guarantor.

Irish League of Credit Unions (ILCU) Affiliation: The ILCU (a trade and representative body for credit unions in Ireland and Northern Ireland) provides professional and business support services such as marketing and public affairs representation, monitoring, financial, compliance, risk, learning and development, and insurance services to affiliated credit unions. As this credit union is affiliated to the ILCU, the credit union must also operate in line with the ILCU Standard Rules (which members of the credit union are bound to the credit union by) and the League Rules (which the credit union is bound to the ILCU by). We may disclose information in your application or in respect of any account or transaction of yours from the date of your original membership to authorised officers or employees of the ILCU for the purpose of the ILCU providing these services to us.

The ILCU Savings Protection Scheme (SPS): We may disclose information in any application from you or in respect of any account or transaction of yours from the date of your original membership to authorised officers or employees of the ILCU for the purpose of the ILCU providing these services and fulfilling requirements under our affiliation to the ILCU, and the SPS.

The Privacy Notice of ILCU can be found at www.creditunion.ie

For the processing of electronic payments services on your account (such as credit transfers, standing orders and direct debits), the Credit Union is a participant of PAYAC. Payac is credit union owned and operated company that assists participating credit unions in obtaining regulatory approval, developing, implementing and providing ongoing support for payment account services. This includes among other activities assisting in the establishment of operating standards, negotiating third party services and outsourcing arrangements on behalf of participating credit unions.

Insurance: As part of our affiliation with the ILCU, we purchase insurance from ECCU Assurance DAC (ECCU), a life insurance company, wholly owned by the ILCU. This includes Life Savings (LS), Loan Protection (LP), and optional related riders (where applicable).

If you choose to take out a loan with us, it is a term of your membership, by virtue of our affiliation with the ILCU that the credit union will apply to ECCU for Loan Protection (LP). In order that we apply for LP it may be necessary to process 'special category' data, which includes information about your health. This information will be shared with ECCU to allow it deal with insurance underwriting, administration and claims on our behalf.

E- Signatures:

Our E-signature service to complete loan documents is available through the on-line computerised system, CU Online+, which is part of our main IT service provider Wellington IT. If you use our E-signature service to complete loan documents through the on-line computerised system, that may result in DocuSign Inc. coming into possession of personal data attributable to yourself. Where any such personal data is contained in a loan document which you have signed using an E-signature generated for you by DocuSign, it is intended that such document will have either been purged or redacted by DocuSign within a short time period after you have so signed the document.

Spouse/Partner

We may have to request other documentation to support your loan application such as quotes, proof of college acceptance or documentation relating to your personal or financial circumstances. Such information will be retained if necessary with your loan application.

It may be a condition of your loan that your repayments are made via Direct Debit or Standing Order. This is to encourage regular and consistent repayments. In this case, your bank details will be processed by us and Direct Debit forms will be retained by us.

In certain circumstances, we may not be able to approve a loan based solely on the applicant's income and expenditure details. In such cases we may request a spouses/cohabitants income and expenditure details for our assessment. We may also request proof of said income or expenditure for the spouse/cohabitant. The spouse/cohabitant income and expenditure details will be stored with the loan application it relates to. If this applies, please note you must ensure you have your spouse's/cohabitants consent to provide us with such information and show them this notice. See Separate Spouse/Partner Lending Privacy Notice

Credit Assessment: When assessing your application for a loan, the credit union will take a number of factors into account and will utilise personal data provided from:

- your application form or as part of your loan supporting documentation
- your existing credit union file,
- credit referencing agencies such as the Central Credit Registrar

The credit union then utilises this information to assess your loan application in line with the applicable legislation and the credit unions lending policy.

Member Service: To help us improve our service to you, we may use information about your account to help us improve our services to you.

SBCI : If you apply for an SBCI Impact Loan we will be required to share your personal data with our data processors METAMO and CUFA for the purposes of the administration and communication of the loan details to the Strategic Bank Corporation of Ireland (SBCI). Your name, address and other personal data in connection with the relevant borrower transaction may be communicated to SBCI, the European Investment Fund (EIF), the European Investment Bank (EIB) and/or any other relevant party all acting as independent data controllers and such personal data may be made public by them acting as independent data controllers. Information on the EIF Data Protection statement can be found at the following link <https://www.eif.org/data-protection> . Information in relation to privacy at the European Investment Bank can be found at the following link <https://www.eib.org/en/privacy/index.htm>

Legal Duty This basis is appropriate when we are processing personal data to comply with an Irish or EU Law.

Regulatory and statutory requirements: To meet our duties to the Regulator, the Central Bank of Ireland, we may allow authorised people to see our records (which may include information about you) for reporting, compliance and auditing purposes. For the same reason, we will also hold the information about you when you are no longer a member. We may also share personal data with certain statutory bodies such as the Department of Finance, the Data Protection Commissioner, the Department of Social Protection and the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman Bureau of Ireland, the appropriate Supervisory Authority if required under law.

Purpose of the loan: We are obliged to ensure that the purpose for the loan falls into one of our categories of lending.

Compliance with our anti-money laundering and combating terrorist financing obligations: The information provided by you will be used for compliance with our customer due diligence and screening obligations under anti-money laundering and combating terrorist financing obligations under The Money Laundering provisions of the Criminal Justice (Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing) Act 2010, as amended by Part 2 of the Criminal Justice Act 2013 (“the Act”) and the Criminal Justice Act of 2018 and 2021. This will include checking/filing reports on the Beneficial Ownership Register and on the Bank Account Register.

Audit: To meet our legislative and regulatory duties to maintain audited financial accounts, we appoint an external and internal auditor. We will allow the internal and external auditor to see our records (which may include information about you) for these purposes.

Credit Reporting: Where a loan is applied for in the sum of €2,000 or more, the credit union is obliged to make an enquiry of the Central Credit Register (CCR) in respect of the borrower. Where a loan is granted in the sum of €500 or more, the credit union is obliged to report both personal details and credit details of the borrower [and guarantor shortly] to the CCR.

Data we provide to the Central Credit Register (CCR) in respect of your loan will now be shared with the Central Statistics Office (CSO). (The Statistics Act 1993 provides that the CSO may obtain information from public bodies including the Central Bank). Personal data held on the Central Credit Register includes your name, date of birth, address, gender, telephone number and personal public service number (PPSN). Your PPSN, Eircode and contact telephone number is not transferred to the CSO. The Central Bank is the data controller for the Central Credit Register and the obligations of the GDPR and general and data protection law apply to them.

The Central Statistics Office, (CSO) is the data controller for the information when it is transferred to them and the obligations of the GDPR and Data Protection law apply then to the CSO. Please refer to the www.centralcreditregister.ie for more information. More information in relation to the CSO is available at www.cso.ie

House Loan: Where you obtain a house loan from us, it will be necessary for the credit union to obtain a first legal charge on the property to be purchased and it will be necessary for us to process your personal data in order to register this charge or have this charge registered on our behalf.

Connected/Related Party Borrowers: We are obliged further to Central Bank Regulations to identify where borrowers are connected in order to establish whether borrowers pose a single risk. We are also obliged to establish whether a borrower is a related party when lending to them, i.e. whether they are on the Board/Management Team or a member of the Board/Management teams family or a business in which a member of the Board /Management Team has a significant shareholding.

Legitimate interests A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information. But even then, it must not unfairly go against what is right and best for you. If we rely on our legitimate interest, we will tell you what that is.

Debt Collection: Where you breach the loan agreement we may use the service of a debt collection agency, solicitors or other third parties to recover the debt. We will pass them details of the loan application in order that they make contact with you and details of the indebtedness in order that they recover the outstanding sums We may use a private investigator in order to locate you in the event that you fail to make repayments on your loan and or fail to make contact with the credit union.

Our legitimate interest: The credit union, where appropriate will necessary take steps to recover a debt to protect the assets and equity of the credit union

Judgements Searches: We may carry out searches in Stubbs Gazette and or Vision-net in order to assess your credit worthiness to repay a loan.

Our legitimate interest: The credit union, for its own benefit and therefore the benefit of its members, must lend responsibly and will use your credit scoring information in order to determine your suitability for the loan applied for. In carrying out such a search we can better determine your overall financial position in order to lend to you.

CCTV: We have CCTV footage installed on the premises with clearly marked signage. The purpose of this is for security, for the prevention of theft, pilferage, and for the security of credit union staff, officers, members, visitors, contractors and credit union property and for ensuring compliance with procedures and for the monitoring of staff performance and for the identification of possible or actual cash overages or shortages by staff and in respect of misconduct issues

Our legitimate interest: With regard to the nature of our business, it is necessary to secure the premises, property herein and any staff /volunteers/members or visitors to the credit union and to prevent and detect fraud.

Voice Recording: We record phone conversations both incoming and outgoing for the purpose of verifying information, clarification of instructions and quality of service

Our Legitimate interest: To ensure a good quality of service, to assist in training, to ensure that correct instructions were given or taken due to the nature of our business and to quickly and accurately resolves any disputes.

Your consent

Marketing and Market Research

To help us improve and measure the quality of our products and services we undertake market research from time to time. This may include using the Irish League of Credit Unions and/or specialist market research companies. See section on Your Marketing Preferences.

Transferring to another Credit Union

Limerick and District Credit Union may assist you in transferring your account to another Credit Union. If you request us to do this, we will require your consent to transfer your personal data to the other credit union. For this transfer to take place you will usually be required to open an account in the other Credit Union first, we will then transfer your account history to the relevant credit union on your behalf.

Cookies

By continuing to use Limerick and District Credit Unions website and by not changing your web browser settings to disable cookies, you consent to the use of cookies.

We may collect information about your computer, including where available your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration, to help us provide a better service, to record session information and/or to assist you in browsing the website. This may in some instances only be statistical data about how you browse our website. For more information on Cookies please see our Cookies Policy on our website and for further information about cookies and how to stop cookies being installed visit <http://www.allaboutcookies.org> (opens in a new window)

Your Rights in connection with your personal data are to:

To find out whether we hold any of your personal data and if we do to request access to that data that to be furnished a copy of that data. You are also entitled to request further information about the processing.

Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you rectified.

Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).

Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes.

Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. You can ask us to suspend processing personal data about you, in certain circumstances.

Where we are processing your data based solely on your consent you have a right to withdraw that consent at any time and free of charge.

Request that we: a) provide you with a copy of any relevant personal data in a reusable format; or b) request that we transfer your relevant personal data to another controller where it's technically feasible to do so. 'Relevant personal data is personal data that: You have provided to us or which is generated by your use of our service. Which is processed by automated means and where the basis that we process it is on your consent or on a contract that you have entered into with us.

You have a right to complain to the Data Protection Commissioner (DPC) in respect of any processing of your data by:

Telephone +353 57 8684800 +353 (0)761 104 800

Lo Call Number 1890 252 231

E-mail info@dataprotection.ie

Postal Address: Data Protection Commissioner

Canal House Station Road

Portarlinton R32 AP23 Co. Laois

Please note that the above rights are not always absolute and there may be some limitations.

If you want access and or copies of any of your personal data or if you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal data, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we send you a copy/a third party a copy your relevant personal data in a reusable format please contact Data Protection Officer in writing using their contact details above.

There is no fee in using any of your above rights, unless your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. We also reserve the right to refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

We may need to verify your identity if we have reasonable doubts as to who you are. This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

Ensuring our information is up to date and accurate

We want the service provided by us to meet your expectations at all times. Please help us by telling us straightaway if there are any changes to your personal data. If you wish to avail of either of these rights, please contact us at the contact details set out above.